CHARLES FRANCIS FOX

Bats R, Throws R. Born October 7,1921, in New York City. Height 5-11, Weight 195. Married; one son, one daughter. Lives in Phoenix, Arizona.

Named manager of the Giants on May 24, 1970 . . . Charlie won the National League's Western Division flag in 1971, his first full season at the helm . . . in the last two years the Giants have been transformed from a power team into a speedy and young club with a nucleus of players that should be on the scene for the next decade . . . with most of the old guard gone, the rising stars such as Maddox, Matthews, Kingman, Speier, Rader and Goodson will be expected to blend with young veterans Fuentes and Bonds to form a contending team in the very tough divisional race . . . it could be the start of another era in San Francisco baseball, much like the Giants' first dozen years on the West Coast . . . not since the 1958 crop of youngsters have so many talented players reached the majors at the same time on one club . . . Fox was signed as a catcher by Jack Schwarz, now the Giants' Farm Director and Scouting Coordinator . . . Charlie was a graduate of James Monroe High School in the Bronx as well as the American Legion baseball program at New York's Eddie Grant Post . . . Fox was an all-round athlete, lettering in baseball; swimming and soccer . . . he relaxes with handball and golf these days . . . a solid first season in professional baseball brought him to the Polo Grounds in 1942 for a late season trial . . . unfortunately his major league career was interrupted by three years of service in the U.S. Navy (1943-46) . . . on his return to baseball Charlie became a playing manager in 1947 at Bristol in the Appalachian League . . . after ten seasons as pilot, Fox was given scouting duties, returning to the dugout eight years later, in 1964 with the AAA Pacific Coast League team at Tacoma . . . four seasons as coach under Herman Franks and another season as AAA manager were the final preparation for taking the reigns at Candlestick Park . . . Charlie was named Manager of the Year in the National League in 1971 . . . he and his wife, Eleanor, make their home in Phoenix with son Michael, 18, and daughter Barbara, 15.

HAVE YOU SEEN A TRIPLE PLAY?

If you've been fortunate enough to witness a triple play you've seen one of the rarest sights in sports.

Since 1900 the Giants have made a total of 22 triple plays, or about one every three and a half seasons. Since the turn of the century the triple play kings in the National League are the Pittsburgh Pirates with 27 while the major league champions are the Detroit Tigers with 30.

In the National League the Giants rank fourth, tied with the Phillies and Reds behind the Bucs, Cardinals (26) and Cubs (25).

JOHN JOSEPH AMALFITANO

Bats R, Throws R. Born January 23, 1934, in San Pedro, California. Height 5-11, Weight 170. Single. Lives in San Francisco.

Signed to a bonus contract by Giant scouts Evo Pusich and the late Walter (Dutch) Ruether . . . joined the New York Giants in 1954 and played on a World Championship team his first season . . . got away from the Giant organization, but was drafted by San Francisco from Toronto following the 1959 season . . . saw two years service with the Giants in Candlestick Park, then went to Houston in the expansion draft of October, 1961 . . . traded back to San Francisco for the 1963 season, then went to the Chicago Cubs' organization where he ended his active playing career under Leo Durocher in 1967 . . . Leo made him a coach with Chicago where he served through 1971 . . . has been the Giants' first base coach the last two seasons . . . a graduate of St. Anthony High School in Long Beach, California . . . attended Loyola University of Los Angeles for three years, received his B.A. degree in Business Administration from the University of Southern California.

DONALD JOHN McMAHON

Bats R, Throws R. Born January 4, 1930, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Height 6-2, Weight 215. Married; 3 sons, 3 daughters. Lives in Garden Grove, Calif.

An amazing athlete, still throwing hard at the age of 44 and now the Giants' pitching coach . . . a graduate of Erasmus Hall High School in Brooklyn, Don signed with the Milwaukee Braves and after his first season was groomed as a relief pitcher, a rarity until recent years when relief specialists have been purposely schooled for that chore . . . a high school chum of the Oakland Raiders' Managing General Partner, Al Davis, Don now scouts college games for the East Bay club . . . he's also a high school basketball official . . . knows all sports and is a trivia buff . . . ranks second in career relief appearances with 863 . . . only Hoyt Wilhelm (1002) had more . . . has been pitching in the majors for 17 seasons . . . last season he started out as pitching coach, but was activated on June 25 and was very effective in the last two months of the season . . . in 22 appearances Don was 4-0 with six Saves . . . his career Save total is 153 . . . he'll not be active to start 1974, but can be placed on the active roster after May 15th . . . Don came to the Giants in August of 1969 from the Detroit Tigers, and in 1971, his 15th season, Don set a personal career high of 10 wins in helping the Giants to the National League Western Division pennant . . . Don pitched in three World Series, as a rookie with Milwaukee in 1957 and again in 1958 and with Detroit in 1968 . . . Don and his wife, Darlene, make their home in Garden Grove, California, with their six children.

ROOKIE RULE

The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player as a rookie unless during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

Giant players who have seen service in the majors but are still eligible for the Rookie of the Yar award are pitcher John D'-Acquisto, infielder Bruce Miller and infielder-outfielder Steve Ontiveros.

OSVALDO JOSE VIRGIL

Bats R, Throws R. Born May 7, 1933, in Monte Cristi, Dominican Republic. Height 6-1, Weight 180. Married; three children. Lives in Glendale, Arizona.

Ozzie returns to the Candlestick Park coaching lines after a year's absence during which he was a Giant scout in the Caribbean and Latin American countries . . . he previously served as a coach with the Giants from 1969 through 1972 . . . a native of the Dominican Republic, Ozzie grew up in New York City and graduated from De Witt Clinton High School in the Bronx . . . served in the U.S. Marines from 1950 to 1952, then signed with the Giants and reached the majors at the end of 1956 with the New York club . . . in January of 1958, shortly before the Giants' first season in San Francisco he was traded to the Detroit Tigers for third baseman Jim Finigan . . . saw action in the American League with the Tigers, Kansas City and Baltimore . . . returned to the N.L. with Pittsburgh in 1965 and in December of that year came back to the Giants in a swap for outfielder Matty Alou . . . except for a pinch hitting appearance in 1969 when a catching emergency arose in a game at Cincinnati, Ozzie wound up his playing career as a player-coach with Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League in 1968 . . . in his eight major league seasons he saw action all around the infield as well as behind the plate.

THE 1974 SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS

CHRISTOPHER PAUL ARNOLD

INFIELDER. Bats R. Throws R. Born November 6, 1947, in Long Beach, California. Height 6-0. Weight 175. Married. Lives in Mesa, Arizona.

Following a brief stint at Phoenix last spring, Chris was summoned to Candlestick Park to fill in as backup catcher and pinch hitter . . . he filled his role well, averaging .333 (12 for 36) with 11 RBIs in emergency situations including a grand slam home run that keyed an unforgettable 7-run ninth inning rally against the Pirates on May 1st at Candlestick . . . lefty Ramon Hernandez was Arnold's victim that night . . . Chris contributed a pair of game-winning hits last season and added a potent bat to the Giant bench . . . originally an infielder when scout George Genovese signed him out of Arcadia High School . . . between the 1968 and 1970 seasons Chris spent two years with the Navy's Submarine Division . . . a likeable and competitive player, he has a solid hitting background . . . married last year . . . played winter ball the last two years, in Dominican Republic and Mexico . . . hobbies are fishing and hunting . . . a new resident of Arizona, near the Giant training camp.

JAMES LELAND BARR

PITCHER. Bats R. Throws R. Born February 10, 1948, in Lynwood, California. Height 6-3, Weight 205. Married. Lives in San Mateo, California.

Brilliant at times and ineffective sometimes, Jim struggled through a frustrating season in 1973 . . . he led the staff in shutouts with three and was among the leaders in complete games . . . started the year in the bullpen, but was a starter most of the campaign . . . his relief work was outstanding, with an ERA of 1.96 in 23 innings . . . Barr was matched with the opposing team's ace more often than not . . . in eight of his defeats he lost by one run, and another defeat was a shutout . . . the margin of defeat was 2-1 twice and 3-2 twice . . . Jim split four decisions with Bob Gibson of the Cardinals, beating him on a 2-hitter in Busch Stadium on April 27 and losing a complete game there, 3-2 on July 16 . . . twice blanked the Dodgers, the last one a 7-0, six-hitter on September 5th that completed a three-game sweep that knocked Los Angeles out of first place . . . Jim has had great games throughout his career . . . he set a major league mark by retiring 41 consecutive batters against Pittsburgh and St. Louis on August 23 and 29, 1972 . . . as the staff leader for University of Southern California's 1970 NCAA Champions Jim was selected number two in the special phase of the June draft that year behind his Trojan teammate Dave Kingman . . . scout George Genovese signed him and after just one year of pro experience he was called up to San Francisco on July 30, 1971, along with Kingman.

BOBBY LEE BONDS

OUTFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born March 15, 1946, in Riverside, California. Height 6-1, Weight 190. Married; three sons. Lives in San Carlos, California.

Voted by the players themselves as The Sporting News National League Player of the Year, Bobby achieved a variety of personal honors, but was not satisfied with his overall performance in 1973 . . . at 28 years of age he has become the team leader by example on the field, and he is emerging as a bonafide superstar in every way . . . a strong contender for the league's Most Valuable Player until a disappointing September hurt his chances, he finished third in the voting behind Pete Rose and Willie Stargell . . . Bobby won the Arch Ward Memorial Award as the MVP in the All Star Game at Kansas City last July 24th . . . although not voted to the starting team in the fans' vote, Bobby hit a 2-run homer off Bill Singer of the Angels in the fifth inning and stretched what looked like a single into a double later to highlight the Nationals' 7-1 victory . . . Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson paid tribute to Bonds by saying, "He's the best player in baseball today!", and he got him into the game as soon as the starters had gone three innings . . . in 1973 Bonds led the league in runs and total bases (341) and also topped the Giants in doubles, homers, stolen bases, and RBIs. . . . he passed the 30 HR-30 SB mark for the second time in his career (Willie Mays is the only other player in baseball to accomplish that feat twice) and just missed becoming the first man to hit the 40-40 home run and stolen base combination . . . Bobby's stolen base efficiency is 81% on 222 career thefts as against only 52 times caught . . . Bobby also won his second Golden Glove for fielding excellence . . . the slender but powerful speedster broke in on June 25, 1968, and his first hit was a grand slam home run off the Dodgers' John Purdin that night . . . he has a total of 165 home runs, good for sixth on the Giants' all-time list, and he has a chance to move up another notch this season . . . a superb leadoff hitter because his speed on the bases puts the pressure on the opposition right away, he has hit a home run as the first batter of the game on 28 occasions, equaling the major league record held by infielder Eddie Yost who played with Washington and Detroit from 1950 to 1960 . . . Bobby cranked up a leadoff homer 11 times last season which is a major league record . . . he will probably remain as the club's leadoff hitter in spite of his power and run producing ability because his speed is of such tremendous value at the top of the order . . . on many occasions last season he keyed winning rallies late in the game from the leadoff spot . . . two of the most memorable were a three-run double which capped a 7-run comeback that beat Pittsburgh at Candlestick on the night of May 1st, 8-7, and a grand slam homer off the Dodgers' Jim Brewer that finished off an unbelievable comeback win, 11-8, in a nationally televised game on Labor Day, September 3rd. . . . the Dodgers led, 8-1, as late as the seventh inning of that one . . . it was Bonds' third career grand slam, and his second of the year . . . Giant scout Evo Pusich signed Bobby and he sped his way to the majors in three and half seasons . . . Bonds was the California state long jump champion as a senior at Riverside Polytechnic High School . . . he attended Riverside City College . . . in 1968, just prior to his callup by San Francisco, Bobby hit three grand slams and drove in 47 runs at Phoenix in just 60 games and was named to the National Association Class AAA West All Star Team . . . a popular banquet speaker in the off season, Bobby received the John F. Kennedy Award for Physical Fitness from the Northern California Baseball Boosters in Sacramento . . . Bobby is the 1974 Arthritis Foundation Sports Chairman for Northern California.

THOMAS WILLIAM BRADLEY

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born March 16, 1947, in Asheville, N.C. Height 6-3, Weight 185. Single. Lives in Falls Church, Va.

After being out of action for a month in the early going, Tom stayed in regular rotation the rest of the season . . . a line drive hit by Atlanta's Ralph Garr struck Bradley on the right ankle on April 17 and it was a painful and slow recovery . . . Tom won his first start in Candlestick Park, a complete game over Houston, and went on to record eight wins in 12 decisions at home . . . Bradley was second to Ron Bryant on the Giant staff in wins and strikeouts . . . his best game of the season was a 1-0, 4-hit decision over Tom Seaver and the Mets in Shea Stadium on August 25th, the only shutout he pitched . . . now has ten lifetime blankings in the majors . . . allowed fewer hits than innings pitched, but his bugaboo was the home run ball (26) . . . won four of his last five decisions . . . acquired from the Chicago White Sox on November 29, 1972, in trade for outfielder Ken Henderson and pitcher Steve Stone . . . had fanned 200 or more batters in 1971 and 1972 . . . signed originally with the California Angels and reached the majors in his first pro season . . . that year he pitched a one-hitter for San Jose Bees against the Fresno Giants of the California League . . . a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in Latin . . . was first team All Atlantic Coast Conference in 1968 . . . has shown great ability on occasion, but must become more consistent to be a big winner . . . counted on as a regular starter and one of the pitching leaders on a young staff.

RONALD RAYMOND BRYANT

PITCHER. Bats R & L, Throws L. Born November 12, 1947, in Redlands, California. Height 6-0, Weight 195. Single. Lives in San Mateo, Cal.

Ron was voted the Sporting News Pitcher of the Year in the National League after posting a major league high of 24 wins . . . only the White Sox' Wilbur Wood won as many, and no one in the N.L. had more than 19 (Tom Seaver and Jack Billingham) . . . it was Ron's second solid season, and he has a .667 percentage for the last two years . . . led Giant pitchers in starts, innings and strikeouts . . . from May 12 to June 15 Bryant won eight straight starts, defeating eight different clubs . . . he whipped every team in the league at least once, but oddly enough he did not record a shutout . . . 24 wins by the San Francisco southpaw were the most by a Giant lefthander since Hall of Famer Carl Hubbell won 26 in 1936 . . . Ron was most effective against the Eastern Division in their ball parks, winning eight decisions without defeat . . . he personally defeated Billingham in Cincinnati in the last game of the season to preserve the distinction of being the only 20-game winner in the league . . . Ron's mascot, "Bear" Bryant, became nationally known last season as he sat in the dugout during all of his games . . . from June 12, 1972, to June 15, 1973, Ron recorded 22 victories against only six losses . . . signed by scout Eddie Montague out of Davis, Cal., High School . . . in his senior year he didn't allow an earned run, yet he lost five games including a no-hitter . . . an excellent golfer . . . this past winter Ron started working with the Bank of America's Bankamericard Division with an eye toward a career when his playing days are over . . . received the Red Stickney Trophy as the Peninsula's Professional Athlete of the Year from the PALO Club.

DONALD GEORGE CARRITHERS

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born September 15, 1949, in Lynwood, California. Height 6-2, Weight 200. Married. Lives in San Mateo, California.

Don's second full season with San Francisco was a disappointment for several reasons . . . he didn't see a whole lot of action, and when he did his effectiveness was not what it should be . . . Don's role last year was in long relief . . . a strong pitcher with a world of stuff, Don needs to become consistent with his deliveries and gain confidence to make himself a winner . . . still a youngster at 24 with physical ability and potential that should be fulfilled . . . Don was signed by scout George Genovese out of Lynwood High School where he was the 1967 Athlete of the Year in football and baseball . . . progressed quickly up the farm system ladder . . . a great start at Phoenix in 1970 won him a promotion to the majors in less than three full pro seasons . . . a full-time Bay Area resident now, Don's hobbies are golf and fishing.

BONDS SETS MAJOR LEAGUE LEADOFF HOMER MARK

Bobby Bonds smashed 11 home runs as the first batter in a game in 1973, setting a major league record for most leadoff home runs in a season.

Bobby also tied Eddie Yost's major league record of 28 leadoff homers in a career. Yost was a third baseman with the Washington Senators and Detroit Tigers from 1950 to 1960.

Among active players, Lou Brock of the St. Louis Cardinals has a career total of 22 and is tied with Jimmy Ryan, an outfielder with the Chicago Cubs and Senators from 1885 to 1903, for second place behind Yost and Bonds.

JAMES EDWARD GOODSON

INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws R. Born January 25, 1948 at Pulaski, Va. Height 6-3, Weight 185. Married, two children. Lives in Independence, Va.

Ed was having a fine year until he broke and lacerated the index finger on his right hand in Pittsburgh on August 17 . . . Goodson collided with catcher Dave Rader as they chased the last out of the game in foul territory and Ed's finger caught in the catcher's chest protector snap . . . although he didn't play the last six weeks of the season he contributed 10 game-winning hits . . . his first grand slam home run was in a pinch hit role at San Diego on August 1st off Clay Kirby . . . longest hitting streak was 16 games which tied him for the club high with Tito Fuentes and Garry Maddox . . . Ed was one of three Giants to hit the .300 circle for the year, the first time since 1962 that San Francisco has had that many players reach that mark (F. Alou .316, Cepeda .306, Mays and Kuenn .304) . . . was one of the club's best hitters with runners on base . . . a natural hitter, he'll go to camp as the regular first baseman . . . an NCAA College All American at East Tennessee State University . . . came to the attention of scouts while playing semi-pro ball in Greenville, Tenn., and was signed by Giant scout Hugh Poland . . . was the California League All Star first baseman in 1970 at Fresno.

GARRY LEE MADDOX

OUTFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born September 1, 1949, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Height 6-3, Weight 175. Married. Lives in Redwood Shores, California.

In his first full season in the major leagues Garry was the third leading hitter in the National League at .319, topped only by Pete Rose's .338 and Cesar Cedeno's .320 . . . it was the highest average for a Giant regular since Willie Mays slugged .347 in 1958, the club's first year in Seals' Stadium . . . Garry was very consistent, starting off the season with a 10-game hitting streak, later topping that with a 16-game string that tied the best streak on the club for the year (Fuentes and Goodson) . . . Garry finished the season hitting in his last 11 games . . . September was hot for him, a .362 average with 5 homers and 24 RBIs improving him from .308 and 7th spot in the Top Ten to his final mark that just missed beating out Cedeno for the runner-up spot in the league . . . was the N.L. Player for the last Week of the season . . . Maddox led the team with 187 hits and tied Gary Matthews for the triple lead with ten . . . Garry improved in every phase of the game last season . . . he upped his stolen base total to 24 and could be an even greater threat on the bases in 1974 with added experience and knowledge of the pitchers . . . the slender speedster led the team with 14 game-winning hits, one more than Bobby Bonds . . . Garry was signed by scout George Genovese after being the Giants' second choice in the January, 1968, draft . . . his pro experience consisted of only a season and half when he reached the majors . . . a two-year hitch with the U.S. Army in Viet Nam caused him to miss half of 1968 and all of 1969 . . . upon his return he was a California League All Star at Fresno in 1971 as well as the loop's best defensive outfielder . . . he's the only player in that league's history to have gone six-for-six twice in a game . . . recently moved into a new home in Redwood Shores . . . has done public speaking work for the Giants and the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau.

GARY NATHANIEL MATTHEWS

OUTFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born July 5, 1950 in San Fernando, California. Height 6-3, Weight 190. Married. Lives in Foster City, California.

A solid .300 season as the Giants' left fielder won Gary the National League's Rookie of the Year award in a landslide over a strong field, and he's the fourth in a distinguished line of Giant freshmen to have won that honor . . . the previous three, Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda and Willie McCovey, all went on to tremendous careers and included the league's Most Valuable Player award in their collection . . . Matthews ended up the season as the ninth top batter in the NL . . . contributed six game-winning hits . . . selected on Topps' Major League All Rookie Team . . . took over the regular left field job in the third week of the season and stayed there . . . powerfully built and exceptionally fast, his home run and RBI production should increase . . . has hit well every year as a professional . . . Gary was the Giants' first choice in the June, 1968, free agent draft and was signed by scout George Genovese after graduation from San Fernando High School . . . made the Midwest League All Star Team in 1969, led Texas League in fielding, doubles and total bases in 1971 and in 1972 set a club RBI record of 108 at Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League . . . played winter league ball with Escogido in the Dominican Republic the last two years . . . Manager Charlie Fox likes Matthews' aggressiveness . . . says Fox, "Gary's a free swinging hitter who makes contact and makes great use of his speed; he has developed self-assurance at bat and in the field" . . . just 23, with his physical ability and desire, Matthews should be a rising star in the National League.

STEVEN ROBERT ONTIVEROS

INFIELDER-OUTFIELDER. Bats R & L, Throws R. Born October 26, 1951, in Bakersfield, Cal. Height 6-0, Weight 185. Single. Lives in Bakersfield.

An excellent hitter, Steve capped a fine minor league career by winning the Pacific Coast League's batting title at Phoenix last summer . . . he led the PCL in doubles and triples and averaged .357, outdistancing runner-up Bill Madlock (now with the Chicago Cubs) by nineteen points . . . Ontiveros was named the Sporting News Minor League Player of the Year . . . signed by scout Dick Wilson, he's ranked in the top ten hitters the last three seasons . . . has played outfield, first and third base in the minors and looks to be a swing man with San Francisco . . . played high school and American Legion ball in Bakersfield . . . of Mexican descent . . . has played the past two winters in the Mexican Winter League . . . a line drive hitter, he also has some power, and his first major league home run, a pinch hit appearance with a man on base, won a game from Gary Ross at San Diego last September . . . called up last August 3, Steve missed the last month of the PCL season and still won the batting crown.

DAVID MARTIN RADER

CATCHER. Bats L, Throws R. Born December 26, 1948, in Claremore, Oaklahoma. Height 5-11, Weight 165. Married, two children. Lives in San Jose, California.

Although his batting average dropped 30 points from 1972, Dave's contributions to the club actually increased in 1973 . . . he continued to be one of the league's strongest defensive receivers with just five passed balls, fewest for any regular catcher . . . completed a rare unassisted double play at second base against the Braves on April 18th, a play that may be a first in major league history . . . he caught more games, and had more extra base hits, home runs and equaled his RBI output of the previous season when he won the Sporting News' Rookie of the Year award . . . Dave struck out only 22 times, making him the second toughest hitter to fan in the league . . . Tommy Helms of Houston had 21 K's in 543 at bats . . . Dave had five game-winning hits and also collected three hits in four pinch hitting appearances . . . recently purchased a home in San Jose and has entered the real estate investment business there . . . signed by scout Dick Wilson after graduation from South Bakersfield High School where he was all league in baseball and football as a quarterback and linebacker . . . Dave was the Giants' first choice in the June, 1967, free agent draft . . . attended Bakersfield Junior College.

ELIAS SOSA

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born June 10, 1950, in La Vega, Dominican Republic. Height 6-2, Weight 190. Single. Lives in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

At just 23 years of age this hard throwing righthander has become the ace of the Giant bullpen and one of the better relief pitchers in the National League . . . he finished third in Rookie of the Year voting . . . tied the Giants' all-time record for appearances that was set by Hoyt Wilhelm in 1952 and broke Jerry Johnson's San Francisco mark of 67 in 1971 . . . made one start, against the Reds in June 20, and the six runs he allowed in 3.2 innings sent his ERA soaring . . . his ERA as a reliever was 2.88, and he had 18 Saves, topped only by Mike Marshall, Tug McGraw, Dave Giusti and Jim Brewer in the league . . . after the All Star break he was 5-1 with nine Saves and an ERA of 2.49, picking up the slack when Randy Moffitt ran into problems . . . signed by scout Horacio Martinez . . . made steady progress through the Giant farm system, finishing second in ERA at Fresno in the California League and recording one of the Pacific Coast League's best ERA's at Phoenix in 1972 . . . a September trial that year with San Francisco started his major league career . . . had been a starter most of his career and it is possible he could fill that role in the future, but he'll be in the bull pen to start the 1974 campaign.

CHRIS EDWARD SPEIER

INFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born June 28, 1950 in Alameda, California. Height 6-1, Weight 185. Married; one son. Lives in Alamo, California.

Although his batting average dropped 20 points from the previous season, Chris was still one of the club's best clutch hitters, equaling his 71 RBIs of 1972 while contributing 11 game-winning hits . . . his RBI record is the most by a Giant shortstop since Daryl Spencer's 74 in 1958 . . . Chris was on the National League All Star Team for the second time, and was the fans' choice as the starter . . . in the field he was among the league leaders in total chances and double plays . . . a prep whiz at Alameda High School in baseball, football and basketball . . . attended University of California at Santa Barbara where he played varsity baseball as a freshman, but wasn't really discovered by scouts until Herman Hannah saw him in a semi-pro league in Ontario, Canada . . . Chris signed after being the Giants' first choice in the special phase of the January, 1970, draft . . . was the Texas League All Star shortstop at Amarillo that season and made the jump to San Francisco as a non-roster player in spring camp of 1971 . . . has been a take charge guy on the infield ever since . . . Chris and his wife, Aleta, became parents for the first time in November when son Justin James was born . . . the Speiers have a new home in Alamo in the East Bay . . . Chris turned in some more spectacular plays with his double play partner, Tito Fuentes . . . they made the 4-6-3 single putout a couple of times . . . worked out often with the Golden State Warriors over the winter.

GARY LEAH THOMASSON

INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born July 29, 1951, in San Diego, California. Height 6-1, Weight 180. Single. Lives in Oceanside, California.

As the Giants' extra outfielder and first baseman Gary had an outstanding year, contributing key hits and displaying speed and dash when he was in the game . . . hit a steady .285, never varying much off that mark . . . just 22 years old, Gary has a bright future ahead of him . . . he fit in well at first base or the outfield and contributed as a pinch hitter with six RBIs and three game-winning hits . . . an eighth round draft choice in 1969 who was signed by scout George Genovese . . . a football and baseball star at Oceanside High School where he was all San Diego C.I.F. as a senior . . . likes to hunt and fish . . . Gary has played winter ball in Mexico the last two seasons . . . selected as the first baseman on Topps' Major League Rookie Team.

CHARLES PROSEK WILLIAMS

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 11, 1947, in Flushing, N.Y. Height 6-2, Weight 200. Single. Lives in Great Neck, N.Y.

A hard thrower who was born virtually in the shadows of Shea Stadium, Charlie signed with the New York Mets after graduation from Great Neck High School . . . won his first National League game over Juan Marichal and the Giants on June 2, 1971, and beat the World Champion Pirates twice that season . . . traded to the Giants on May 11, 1972, in the Willie Mays swap . . . attended Parsons College in Iowa on a baseball scholarship . . . needs to become consistent and show better control of his pitches . . . with San Francisco in 1973 he was 3-0, although statistics belie his won-lost success . . . was not on the mound regularly enough to become sharp after being called up in May . . . sent down to Phoenix in July and split 10 decisions.

JAMES ARTHUR WILLOUGHBY

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born January 31, 1949, in Salinas, California. Height 6-2, Weight 185. Married, one son. Lives in Gustine, California.

A spectacular two month effort in the last part of 1972 gave Jim a regular starting job for the first two months of last season . . . the same effectiveness was not there and Jim found himself in the bullpen by mid-season . . . he proved effective at times, but lack of consistency was a problem . . . shut out St. Louis, 1-0, on four hits April 28 in Busch Stadium . . . a signee of scout Dick Wilson out of Gustine High School where he starred in baseball, basketball and football . . . working toward a degree in Electrical Engineering . . . minor league record included an All Star Team berth in the California League in 1969 when he was second in ERA, and a fine 1971 season at Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League when he was the leader in complete games and shutouts (4) as well as ERA runner-up . . . his 1972 record with San Francisco included the top ERA of the club and seven complete games in 11 starts . . . last year he hit his first major league home run—in Riverfront Stadium off Cincinnati lefthander Tom Hall on April 7th . . . pitched in the Venezuelan League this past winter.

NON-ROSTER PLAYER IN GIANTS' CAMP

LESLIE CAIN

PITCHER. Bats L, Throws L. Born January 13, 1948, in San Luis Obispo, Calif. Height 6-1, Weight 200. Married; two children. Lives in Richmond, Calif.

A hard throwing southpaw with the Detroit Tigers several seasons ago, Les sat out the 1973 season with shoulder problems after a brief appearance in the Giants' spring training camp last year . . . surgery on his shoulder was performed by Dr. Fred Behling at Stanford and Cain's recovery has been labeled miraculous by Giant team physician Dr. E.C. Sailer . . . Les was the Tigers fourth draft choice in June of 1966 out of El Cerrito High School . . . he made swift progress and hit the majors at the tail end of 1968, winning his first decision . . . his best year was 1970 when he was 12-7 including an eight-game winning streak . . . late that season a sore shoulder began bothering him and 1971 was a painful year . . . after an 0-3 start with Detroit in 1972, Les was optioned to Toledo and ended up pitching with Phoenix on loan from the Detroit organization . . . he came to camp as a non-roster player on a look from Detroit last year, but this time he is signed to a Phoenix contract . . . a powerful pitcher with strikeout ability when right, his return to form could be a tremendous bonus to the Giants.

NEW "SAVE" RULE FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a Save when, in entering the game, he finds the potential tying or winning run on base or at the plate, or pitches at least three effective innings and, in either case, preserves the lead.

When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a Save under the provisions of this rule, the Save shall be credited to the relief pitcher judged by the Official Scorer to have been the most effective. It is not mandatory to credit a Save. Only one Save can be credited in any game.

THE GIANTS' NEW VOICES

A pair of bright, youthful talents have joined KSFO and the Golden West Network as the voices of the Young Giants. Al Michaels, 29, has already established himself as a major league broadcaster. Art Eckman, his new sidekick, is a rookie as far as major league baseball is concerned.

Michaels, a Dodger fan in his youth, graduated from Hamilton High School in Los Angeles, where his family moved from Brooklyn in 1959. Four years at Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona, just a short distance from the Giants' spring home, Phoenix Municipal Stadium, gave Al the basics of sportscasting. He was at the mike for ASU's baseball, basketball and football games.

Al had some experience with Chuck Barris Productions in Hollywood, doing the Dating Game and Newlywed Game television shows. Then he went back into sports in Hawaii, with his main duty as play-by-play announcer of the Hawaii Islander games in the Pacific Coast League. Al also had his own TV show and did a myriad of high school football and basketball games in Hawaii. His ability and reputation earned him a three-year contract to air the Cincinnati Reds' games. During his stay with the Reds Al gained national exposure on the World Series as well as on NBC's Winter Olympics from Sapporo, Japan, and NFL commentary.

Al and his wife, Linda, now live in Menlo Park with 4-year old son Steven, and they expect their second child this summer.

Eckman, 31, has had working experience with Golden West Broadcasters as play-by-play man on Oregon State football and basketball. A native of Salem, Oregon, Art was raised in Portland where his radio career bagan after graduation from Washington State University with a B.S. in Speech-Communications. He covered the Mexico City Olympics in 1968 for GWB, and the following year he was the Voice of the Portland Beavers in the Pacific Coast League.

More recently Art has been doing play-by-play for the Houston Rockets of the National Basketball Association, and he did some relief broadcasting of five Giant games in the Astrodome which helped land him the co-announcer job.

The Giants will field a team of youthful veterans in this season, most of them played quite a bit last season. But the sound of the Giants, on KSFO and the Golden West Network will be entirely new, and Al Michaels and Art Eckman will be entrusted with the duties of keeping Northern California baseball fans informed and up to date on the activities of The Young Giants' 1974 edition.
